Brinkerhoff may make improvements and/or changes in the product(s) and/or the program(s) described herein at any time.

At Brinkerhoff we value your privacy. We will not sell, rent, or give away your personal information to any other companies or entities. The information you provide us will be used only by Brinkerhoff to send you the information you request on our products and services. Our goal is not to bombard you with useless information in the form of junk mail, e-mail and phone solicitations. We want to assess your business needs and determine if our products and service meet those needs. We wish only to consult with you and present you with the best possible business solutions we can offer. To obtain the information we need and make an adequate assessment, a representative may contact you by phone. We may communicate with you via e-mail or other online delivery devices only if you agree to receive those communications by providing us with that information. If you believe you are receiving our communications in error or no longer desire to receive them, please inform us. Brinkerhoff will be judicious in the use of e-mail and paper mail to communicate with clients. We will, at all times, put ourselves in the place of the recipients of our mail and treat our clients as we ourselves would like to be treated.
